“Then give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.” - Jesus
Luke 20:25

“He who surrenders himself without reservation to the temporal claims of a nation, or a party, or a class is rendering to Caesar that which, of all things, most emphatically belongs to God: himself.”

C.S. Lewis

Read Luke 20:20-26 and Romans 13:1-7.

- Jesus recognizes that the Roman government has authority, but God has ultimate authority. How does that line up with what you see in our country? How does it line up with your views and how you respond to the current political landscape and upcoming election?
- Think about your mindset and attitudes- Are you more focused on preserving America or building the Kingdom of Christ (making disciples)?
- How do we promote the “common good” as citizens of the Kingdom? What, specifically, can you do this week in your neighborhood to serve the community?

THE MOST IMPORTANT QUESTION

Does Jesus have your heart? Your answer to this will affect not just your perspective on this election, but your position in eternity. Stop long enough to consider it, to really answer this question.
