

Message Reflections
April 18, 2021

Romans 12 provides a clear picture of a “fully-devoted” follower of Christ. This one chapter is Paul’s summary of a disciple.

Read: Romans 12:1-21

Reflect: Pastor Eric asked each of us if we have taken the step to be “totally committed” in our relationship with Christ. Have you taken that step? If not, what is your greatest fear in surrendering all that you are, and all that you have, to Christ?

“Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.” Romans 12:2

- Think of a time in your faith journey when the world’s values about how to live your life made it difficult for you to follow God. How did you get through it? What did you learn?

Reflect: Share honestly with God where you struggle the most in your life. Then sit quietly and listen after asking God to reveal anyone or anything that is currently a hindrance to your relationship with Christ.

- How would you characterize your mental and spiritual diet? What correlation might there be between areas where you “struggle” and what is going into your mind?

When you totally commit to following Jesus it turns your life completely around as you ask, “Lord, what do you want me to do in... my work, my future, my marriage, my singleness, my spiritual gifts, with my money... to fulfill Your will and purposes in and through me?”
